Our 1/18/23 luncheon sales were $1400 and expenses were $1663 for a loss of $263. Five members paid their dues at the meeting for $200 and our post-meeting raffle generated $120. Other expenses include reimbursements of $41.10 to Greg Back for award frames, Gary Toombs, $40.00 for last months cookies, Larry Hughes $41.37 for table cloths, etc. The report was passed unanimously with a 1st by Gary Toombs and 2nd by Fred Courter.

Dine in/Out Gary Toombs: Gary is planning Dine Out March 23 at Vito's, tentatively.

WINO with our Wine Guru Russ Winton will be held on 2/22 at Toscana's at 5:30PM.

Old Business:

After discussion of pricing for our lunches Rick Kindel suggested we poll the members to get opinions on a breakfast or brunch meeting as opposed to lunch. The catering will be less expensive.

An Audit Committee will be composed of Mark Taylor, Gary Toombs and Rock Libby.

A possible lunch/brunch/breakfast committee would consist of Roger Jackson, Bob Holly, Larry Hughes and Rock Libby. Our Area Representative (formerly Area Governor) is Geoff Chin. This year's Nominating Committee will consist of Greg Back and his selection of committee members.

The question arose regarding our performing "Service Work" and Rick Kindel informed us that we are allowed to perform this type of service only in association with service clubs such as Rotary, Lions, etc. We can wear SIR shirts and hats to promote our group.

New Business:

Our February program will feature John Rogers, head of the Mary Stuart Rogers Foundation and a very well known person in our community. Rick Kindel suggests we invite ladies and guests to the event. This would be very good publicity for our SIR Branch.

We are considering a booth at the Turlock Farmer's Market to provide exposure and attract new members.

Larry Hughes notes he is mailing 17 Newsletters currently. This is time consuming and expensive and we are trying to reduce that number.

Tom Bundy and Ed Darrah have asked to be deleted from the membership list.

Respectfully submitted by

Bob Lotspeich,
Secretary, Branch 143

DUES ARE NOW $40 for the year and NOW PAYABLE

Our Speaker for the Month of February will be Col. John Rogers

We are excited to have John Rogers as our speaker at our February 15th meeting. Because of John's popularity and support of many local humanitarian efforts, your Board of Directors has elected to open our meeting to spouses and guests.

Many of you know John and June Rogers and what they provide to our community and many others.

John Rogers is a pilot, angler, and philanthropist. He is the President of the Mary Stuart Rogers Foundation in Modesto. This Foundation started in the early 1980s when the Carnation Company sold out to Nestle. John's Mother, Mary, provided her share of the stock that formed the financial basis of the Mary Stuart Roger Foundation. This is a gifting foundation focusing on education. They gift scholarships to elementary, high school, college, and graduate students who enter the teaching program. John says, "We help people who help themselves." Here is a link to more on John and the Foundation: <https://www.lclark.edu/live/news/19390-john-rogers-pilot-angler-and-philanthropist>.

John graduated from Willamette University, and here is a posting the University provided about John: Colonel John Rogers is President of the Mary Stuart Rogers Foundation, established by his mother in 1985. Under his leadership, the Foundation has made many impactful gifts to Willamette, most notably the endowment of the Science Collaborative Research Program (now called the Mary Stuart Rogers Fellow Program), significant support for the Mary Stuart Rogers Music Center and the creation of the Mary Stuart Rogers Scholarship program.

During his 26-year career as a U.S. Air Force pilot, Col. Rogers received several honors, including the Distinguished Flying Cross, Meritorious Service Medal, and Air Force Commendation Medal. Retired from the military in 1989, Col. Rogers now owns and is an active pilot with Sky Trek Aviation, which facilitates corporate aircraft management, charter flights, and aircraft sales.

In 1998 Willamette honored Col. Rogers with an Alumni Citation for his philanthropic and community work.

Closer to home and located in Turlock is the United Samaritans Foundation, which John and June founded in 1994, to comfort those in need. Volunteers prepare and deliver meals to residents in Southern Stanislaus County. John serves as the President of this non-profit. Here is a link to more on the United Samaritans: <https://unitedsamaritans.org/>

The Samaritan Village in Hughson celebrates being open for 20 years. It was the vision of John and June Rogers, the dream to build a retirement community offering luxurious yet surprisingly affordable living to seniors sixty-two and over. Many of our SIR members have transitioned to living here. Here is a link to more on the Samaritan Village: <https://www.svliving.org/about-us>

Our meeting on February 15th will be an excellent opportunity for you to invite guests and potential members. Please make your lunch arrangements and invite guests as soon as possible.

Rick Kindle...

To confirm the number of lunches required, you will need to purchase or confirm your lunches in advance. The cutoff date for ensuring lunch is February 10th. The cost of the lunch per person is $25.00. Roger Jackson has again agreed to handle the lunch ticket sales. He prefers, for your convenience and his, that you mail your check to him at 2376 Valentine Court, Turlock, California 95382. He will still be available if you wish to arrange the pickup of tickets. Roger's number is 209-658-2673. We will also open our meeting to those who may not want to eat lunch but wish to attend. No reservations for the event itself are requested.

THE WINE LINE

By Russ Winton

Wine Investigation for Novices and Oenophiles (W.I.N.O.)

Wine Tasting in South Africa?

The South African wine industry, started by the Dutch East India Company, had their first harvest in 1659. The vineyards were planted to produce wines and grapes to ward off scurvy amongst sailors during their voyages along the spice route to India. The winemaking was woefully bad in the 17th century, so French Huguenots with winemaking experience were invited and settled in an area now called Stellenbosch.

South Africa today is the world's 7th largest wine producer. The top three planted white grapes are Chenin Blanc, Colombard and Sauvignon Blanc. The top reds are Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz and Pinotage (a cross between Pinot Noir and Cinsault).

The Navigator decided before we taste the wines we probably should see the wild animals first, so we chose this tour: Days 1-2-Fly to Johannesburg. Day 3-Visit Soweto and Nelson Mandela's home. Day 4-Fly to Kruger National Park. Day 5-Full day game drive. Day 6-Repeat Day 5. Day 7-Fly to Livingstone and transfer to Victoria Falls. Day 8-Explore Victoria Falls. Day 9-Visit a school and enjoy a home cooked meal. Day 10-Transfer to Hawange National Park and Iganyana Tented Camp. Day 11-Morning and afternoon safari drives. Day 12-Visit Painted Dog Conservation Center and evening game drive. Day 13-Travel to the Chobe National Park with afternoon game drive. Day 14-Cruise the Chobe River after game drive. Day 15-Photo safari on the Chobe River. Day 16-Fly to Cape Town. Day 17-Visit Table Mountain and explore Cape Town. Day 18-Visit Cape Winelands and tasting at two Stellenbosch Wineries, fantastic lunch. Day 19-Visit the Cape of Good Hope and Boulders Beach penguins. Day 20-Luxury bay cruise. Days 21-22-Fly home. I was a bit disappointed visiting just two wineries but the wines were excellent. It was the frosting on the cake of a great adventure. We loved Africa!

What's On Our Table

I like Trader Joe's. I like their prices and their selection of Old World wines. The closest TJ's is 25 miles to the north or 55 miles to the south. This is a major problem. I would love to have one in Atwater or Turlock or Merced or heck, even Livingston. Here are some good deals. For pink and whites, I like the La Ferme Julien Rose ($5.99), the Castle Rock Monterey Rose ($4.49) and the Picton Bay New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc ($7.99). For reds, I picked the La Sonriente Garnacha ($6.99) and Laurent Dublanc Cotes du Rhone ($5.99). I took a chance on a Trader Joe's Premium Reserve Carneros Pinot Noir ($14.99) and I will definitely buy more. Cheers!
